PREREQUISITES: ENG 155 with a grade of "C" or better

DESCRIPTION: This course is a study of oral communication in professional and social environments.

MATERIALS (specifying those to be purchased by student): One three-ring binder with notebook paper, 5x8 index cards, pens, textbook and pencils. (Everyday)

COLLATERAL READING:

CLASS MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES (Attendance, tardies, testing, etc.):

Academic Honesty: Students are reminded of college policy regarding Academic Dishonesty as outlined in the Student Code Handbook. Should any student break college policy and submit an essay that is not entirely his/her own work, plagiarize, or cheat on any assessment, he/she will receive a 0/F for that assignment.

Attendance: Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes, however, no more than six (6) classes may be missed during the day classes, and for evening classes no more than three classes may be missed—regardless of excuse.

If the instructor drops a student for excessive absences at any time during the semester, a grade of “F” will be assigned. If the student withdraws from the course, a grade of “W” or “WF” will be assigned as outlined in the college catalog. No withdrawals are permitted two (2) weeks before the semester’s end by the student.

Should a student leave class before class is dismissed, it will count as an absence. Should the student be habitually tardy, he/she will be warned afterwards, every three (3) tardies will count as an absence.

Assignments: Students are responsible for any notes, handouts, and/or assignments given during their absence. The instructor also reserves the right to refuse any paper that does not follow assignment guidelines.

Pop Quizzes will be given randomly during the semester. Should a student be late or miss a quiz, he or she must report to the Success Center within 48 hours to make up the quiz or test. If students fail to make up the work within the given time they will be given a grade of “0”. Students that fail to give their speech on their assigned speech day will be dropped one letter grade for every day the speech is late. No excuses!!

Should the student fail to follow the above procedure, the student will receive a 0 on the assessment.

Class Policy: All cell phones, beepers, pagers, etc. must be turned off upon entering class and must remain off and unseen during class.

Disabilities Statement: Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact the Dean of Student Services to discuss needs or concerns as they pursue an academic program and participate in campus life. The Dean of Student Services will provide guidance regarding official documentation of disabilities and/or accommodation of needs. (See Catalog).

STUDENT ID: It is mandatory that every student wear his or her student ID at all times when on the Cheraw campus.

During the first week of classes, the instructor will issue a reminder to wear the ID. This reminder is a warning.

After the first week of classes, instructors are required to dismiss students without ID from class. The student may get his/her ID (or the student may go to Student Services and get a temporary stick on ID for one day for $1.00 or a permanent one for $3.00) and return to class before the midpoint of the class. If the student cannot get an ID and return to class by the midpoint, the instructor will record the absence.
